POLISH SUGAR AND SOAP RATIONING REGULATIONS

RULES FOR THE SALE OF SUGAR -- Warsaw, Glos Pracy, 12 May 52

For some time now, sugar purchased for speculation purposes have caused difficulties for workers and their families in obtaining this item.

In connection with this and the numerous petitions of work crews, starting with 12 May 1952, sugar and some types of candy will be sold temporarily against ration coupons. The rationed sugar and candy will be sold at prevailing fixed prices. However, for those without ration coupons the free sale of sugar at commercial /higher/ prices will continue. All product with sugar as a basic ingredient will also be sold freely /at the higher prices/. Prices for these products are subject to appropriate changes.

Sugar allotments to persons on name lists will be sold in stores designated by the appropriate presidiums of the national councils.

NOTICE OF SOAP RATION -- Warsaw Trybuna Ludu, 2 May 52

The Ministry of Domestic Trade has ordered the sale of laundry soap and powder against meat and fat ration coupons, starting with 2 May 1952.

The basic allotment is 250 grams of laundry products (including 125 grams of laundry soap) per month for each authorized person. Additional allotments are given for children under 3 years and to persons employed in occupations resulting in excessive soiling of the body or clothes. A supplementary notice will list these occupations, which will include miners, foundry workers, etc.

In May, holders of IS allotments will receive 250 grams of laundry soap against coupon No 6 and 250 grams of other laundry products against coupon No 7. Identical amounts will be given against coupons No 8 and No 9 of the meat and fat ration coupons in categories Dz IA, Dz IB, and Dz IC.

Holders of meat and fat ration books in the remaining categories will receive 125 grams of laundry soap and 125 grams of other laundry products for coupons No 6 and 7. Special certificates for the same amounts will be issued by factories and appropriate national councils to persons authorized to purchase soap rations but without ration coupons for fat and meat. Some consumer categories will be issued additional allotments sometime in May.

The meat and fat ration books must be registered in a soap store or other point selling laundry products against ration coupons before the purchase of the laundry products. During the registration, the ration books are stamped and coupon No 7 in allotment category Ds IA or coupon No 5 in the remaining categories is torn out.

The equivalent of 125 grams of laundry soap is one eighth of a bar of laundry soap or half of a section of a four-sectioned bar.

The free sale of toilet soap, shaving soap, and special types of higher quality soaps in specially shaped bars will continue independent of the sale of laundry and powder against meat and fat ration coupons.
